FRESH PACK TOMATO SEASON

We gear up when it's harvest time.

TRANSPORTATION

Watsonstown Trucking Company provides 24/7 transportation services to move 750 truckloads of canned tomatoes from the processing plant to off-site warehouses during the eight-week packing season.

WAREHOUSING

Patton Warehousing provides storage and handling for more than 10,000 pallets of canned tomatoes during the eight-week peak processing period. We allocate 100,000 sq. ft. of warehouse space to the project each year. The product is stored and identified by location in the warehouse using our warehouse management system (WMS).

LOGISTICS

Patton Logistics provides additional transportation capacity during surge production periods through a vast network of partner carriers. In addition, Patton Logistics provides 24/7 support to manage the completion of the project according to the client's operational requirements.
